

THE POLITICAL WORLD.

The Result in Maine. The New York World publishes the following despatch:—Bangor, Me., Sept. 10.—The result of the election yesterday in Maine has established both parties. The immense Republican majority of last year, which was twenty-eight thousand, and it will take some days to decide whether the radical candidate for Governor is elected. The counties of York, Knox, Lincoln, Washington, and Aroostook have certainly been gained by the Democrats, and others are in doubt.

Complexion of the Maine Legislature. A special despatch to the Boston Advertiser says that the Republicans have carried twelve counties sure, and possibly thirteen, it being quite probable that the Democrats have carried York, Knox, and Aroostook, with strong chances for Lincoln also. The Senate will stand about 24 or 25 Republicans to 6 or 7 Democrats; the House 106 Republicans to 12 Democrats. Those elected to the Senate are but 12 members of the Senate of 1867. There are 8 members of the last House transferred to the Senate, and one or two others who have performed legislative service in former years. The list of Representatives is far from complete, so far as it goes to notice, the members are generally new to legislative duty. Out of 80 names of Republican nominees, all but three or four of whom are for districts carried by the party last year, I count but ten members of the last House, and but 20 who have ever served in the Legislature. Additional returns are given, as follows:—

Chamberlain, Pittsburg, Chamberlain, Pittsburg, Ellsworth, 388 223 Rockland, 559 477 Eastport, 276 181 Saco, 380 303 Calais, 208 139 Waterville, 47 219 Camden, 417 384 Augusta, 835 750 Belfast, 451 327

Augusta is Mr. Pillsbury's place of residence, and the Republican loss there is 387. Bangor, where the Chamberlain resides, shows a Republican loss of 246. A despatch to the Boston Post says:—The Democracy of York county have made a noble fight with radicalism to-day, and at this hour feel confident of having gained a glorious victory. We have returned from twenty-two towns in this county, which give a Democratic gain over last year of 1056. The radical majority last year was 973 in the county. The following is the gain by towns in York county: Bangor, 200; York, 74; South Berwick, 66; North Berwick, 1; Sanford, 54; Berwick, 15; Lebanon, 74; Wells, 62; Cornish, 25; Limrick, 30; Parsonsfield, 30; Kennebunk, 20. The radical gain in Aroostook, 25; Lyman, 11; Waterboro, 25; Kittery, 105; Eliot, 30. The following towns only remain to be heard from:—Acton, Sharpshill, Limington, and Newfield. These gave last year 38 Democratic majority, which gives us York county by upwards of 100 majority.

Vermont. The aggregate vote for Governor, as far as ascertained, stands, Page, 24,997; Edwards, 8066; Republican majority, 15,497. Judge Woodward for Congress. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 10.—Ex Chief Justice Woodward, now absent in Europe, received the unanimous nomination of the Democratic Convention held here to-day. This makes him the unanimous choice of this district (the Twelfth), to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Denison, deceased. The district is strongly Democratic, and the nomination of Woodward, a candidate by an increased majority is considered certain. The nomination is universally well received, and the utmost enthusiasm prevails. Woodward and Shawswood are good for the largest majority ever given in the district.

Towa. The Iowa political campaign is in progress, and as in Wisconsin the question of prohibition enters as an element in the (all election, a "people's party" is organizing; which is a union of anti-prohibitionists with the Democrats. Senator Gilman has written a letter to the editor of the Burlington Hawk Eye, declaring his hostility to a prohibitory tariff. He says that he is not aware that the Republican party has ever been in any position to carry out a policy that he believes that the people of Iowa will be unwilling to destroy their revenue from imports by a prohibitory policy. The following are the State tickets:—

DEMOCRATIC. Governor—Charles Mason. Lieutenant-Governor—D. M. John. Judge of the Supreme Court—John H. Craig. Attorney-General—W. T. Barker. Superintendent of Public Instruction—M. L. Fisher. REPUBLICAN. Governor—Colonel Samuel Merrill. Lieutenant-Governor—Colonel John Scott. Judge of the Supreme Court—J. M. Beck. Attorney-General—Major Henry O'Connor. Superintendent of Public Instruction—D. F. Wells. Johnson's Intentions. The Boston Post's Washington despatch says:—The political gossip here are much excited to-day over the report that President Johnson contemplates a grand coup d'etat should Congress attempt further encroachment upon the Executive prerogatives. It is charged that his proclamations are but the forerunners of a desperate intention to dissolve the Presidential articles of impeachment by the Congress against him. This rumor is but the natural offspring of a well-grounded fear that the Legislative Department is determined to force an issue which might possibly lead to such a result. I have good authority for saying that the President will leave the preservation of the Constitution to the people themselves after he has exhausted his legitimate authority in its defense. He does not believe in going outside of the Constitution to preserve it when the people hold the remedy in their own hands.

Rev. Thomas Howe Taylor. Rev. Dr. Thomas Howe Taylor, Rector of Grace Church, in this city, died on Monday, at West Park, on the Hudson. Dr. Taylor was born in South Carolina, and was settled in that State for a short time. He had been connected with Grace Church since 1834 or 1835, when the congregation worshipped in a building opposite Trinity, in the lower part of Broadway. His life, therefore, has been closely associated with the history and prosperity of Grace Church. He was a prominent member of what is known as the Low Church party, and always took an active part in the debates of the annual Diocesan Convention. Dr. Taylor was a forcible and pleasing writer, an eloquent speaker, and of a character and zealous temperament placed him in the country. Dr. Taylor's health has been quite infirm for two or three years past. Some eighteen months since he sustained severe injuries, in consequence of being thrown from a horse while on his way to Europe, with a view to recuperation, his health never fully recovered. Dr. Taylor returned from Europe towards the close of the year, and from that time until his death remained at his residence on the Hudson.—N. Y. World of to-day.

Dr. Louis Desire Veron, of Paris. The death of this celebrated French physician and publicist occurred at Paris on Monday, as announced by a cable telegram. The deceased was born in Paris, on the 5th of April, 1788 and was therefore in the seventieth year of his age at the time of his death. He studied medicine and received his diploma in 1823, becoming a prominent member of the profession in a very short time. In 1828 he became a journalist, and was subsequently connected with several Paris journals, his political articles and theatrical feuilletons attracting considerable attention. He was afterwards (about 1840) appointed one of the directors of the opera, and retained this position until he became one of the proprietors of the Constitutionnel. After the Revolution in 1848 he held this paper and WASHINGTON NEWS. Secretary McCulloch Not to be Removed. General Howard Returns to the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11. Position of Secretary McCulloch. Secretary McCulloch has no knowledge of any desire on the part of the President for him to resign, and nothing has occurred between them to warrant the reports now in circulation that he will be removed, and he authorizes this statement to be made by your correspondent. The hungry crew seeking his removal are ravenous after the money bags of the Government.

General Howard returned this morning from his late trip East. The rumors that he would be removed have subsided, but it is most likely that the President cannot find the man he wants to put in his place. Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hartley has returned, and was on duty this morning.
